Payments you receive from Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (“MassMutual”) are subject to Federal Income Tax withholding unless you elect not to have withholding apply. Withholding will apply only to the portion of your distribution that is includable in your income subject to Federal Income Tax. There will be no withholding on the return of your own after-tax contributions to your Policy. You may incur penalties if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. If taxes are withheld, receipt of your payment may be delayed by the calculations required. State income tax withholding may also apply. State income tax withholding requirements vary by state. If required under the laws of the state in which you live, state income tax withholding will also apply. For more information on the withholding requirements in your state, see State Income Tax Withholding Disclosure.

Check the box below if you do not want any Federal income tax withheld from your distribution for payments other than eligible rollover distributions.

I do not want to have Federal income tax withheld from my disbursement.
